

Spectrum Health Office of Research

Scholarly Activity and Scientific Support

Who We Are

Spectrum Health is the leader in Healthcare in West Michigan

SASS is a dynamic collaborative team of:

- Biostatisticians
- Scientists
- Bioinformatician
- Epidemiologists
- Data Engineers

Our Goal

Facilitate the development of investigator initiated research and provide assistance for the presentation and publication of the research studies.

Make a Difference

SASS Internships

1 Year internship that exceeds the GVSU PSM qualifications

Real life experience with consulting
Attend a national conference
Get Published

Opportunities

Biostatistician Bioinformatician
Data Scientist Epidemiologist
Science Editor

Contact us at

SASSassist@spectrumhealth.org

Areas of Research At Spectrum Health

Frederik Meijer and Vascular Institute

National leader in structural heart disease and remote stenting

Helen DeVos Children's Hospital

Programs in neonatal/pediatric intensive care, rare genetic diseases, cystic fibrosis, and pediatric hematology/oncology

Clinical Neuroscience

Stroke, movement disorders, and dementia

Women's Health

Changes in midlife, menopause, and sexual health

Digestive Health

Advances in endoscopy and anastomosis

Trauma Research Institute

Geriatric rib fractures and Traumatic Brain Injury

What can we do

Consult directly with physicians on their research
Sample Size/Power Analysis
Statistical Analysis
Data visualization
Data pull from EMRs
Manuscript preparation and review

Data Visualizations

